An Hour Unspent â† Bibliophile Reviews Last year, as I finished up the writing of An Hour Unspent, my great-grandmother passed away at the age of 103. As I sat at her funeral service and listened to the heartfelt memorial raised up to her by her kids and grandkids, I realized anew that this woman had been a matriarch in the truest sense of the word. An Hour Unspent: a FIVE star review â€“ Inspiration Clothesline An Hour Unspent did not disappoint. As we follow Barclay into the culmination of the story, I was enthralled not only by the strong story line but also by the depth in the characters and the attachment I developed for the family.
