Tomorrow's Bread Today | Disciples | Torah Portions By asking God to give us the "bread of tomorrow," we are not merely asking God for daily provision. Instead, we are asking him to provide us with a foretaste of the Messianic Era today. Yeshua referred to it as "the children's bread" (Matthew 15:26).

The Faith Log: Give Us Today the Bread of Tomorrow The "daily bread" is not the bread of today but the bread of tomorrow. So what is the "bread of tomorrow"? To understand that, we must recognize that the Lord's Prayer is a kingdom prayer. It comes in the middle of the Sermon on the Mount, which begins, "Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven" (Matthew 5:3. Bread of Tomorrow @ Beit Hashofar Synagogue | Tukwila ... In this two-part seminar, First Fruits of Zion teachers D. Thomas Lancaster and Toby Janicki teach us how discipleship to Yeshua demands more than just daily bread--we must ask God to give us the bread of tomorrow, i.e., the good things of the kingdom of heaven. Bread of Tomorrow Â» A season of hope There was just a fellow journeyer along the road, a study of the Scriptures, and it was finally the breaking of bread around the table that revealed the Risen Lord. These two disciples surely picked up on that same cadence that catches our ears: Jesus took bread, blessed and broke it, and gave it to them.
